

Directions to The Stumpy Quilter

Coming from Carmarthen

- From Carmarthen you will take the A484 south towards Llanelli (going passed Morrisons)
- After a number of roundabouts, you will have travelled through the villages of Pibwrlwyd and Cwmffrwd.
- Take the left turn on the big bend signposted towards Pontyberem. This is the B4306.
- Stay on this road for a few miles going through the villages of Llangyndeyrn and Crwbin until you cross the cattle grids and enter the village of Bancffosfelen.
- You will pass the community hall and the school on your left.
- You need to take the second road on the left. It is just after the dark grey house and the top of the road is marked with a steep hill sign. This is HEN HEOL Y BANC which is where the studio is.

TAKE THIS ROAD

- Follow the lane down the hill passed houses on your right, then eventually a bungalow on you left.
- Keep going until you see a bungalow roof on the left..that is me! The entrance is two grey gates between two brick pillars.
- Just pull in and park.

Coming from Swansea/Llanelli

- Once in the village of Pontyberem you need to take the B4306, Heol Y Banc. From the Llanon Road or Tumble/Cross Hands this will be on your right after you have passed the shops. If you are coming from Pontygates it will be on your left before you reach the village.

- Continue on Heol Y Banc for about a mile. You will go down the hill then back up round a very steep bend, passing the park on your right and the school on your left.
- After the sharp bend as you climb the hill look out for the yellow and black markers that signify the bridge: the turning is immediately OPPOSITE that.

Hen Heol
Y Banc

- This is Hen Heol Y Banc.
- Go up the hill passed the houses.
- After the houses there is an entrance to the farm on your right and the road bends round to the left.
- Keep going round to the left and then the road swings back round to the right.
- You will pass a bungalow on your right and see a large light grey house on your left.
- Opposite the grey house is the entrance to my bungalow with two grey gates and two stone pillars.
- Just pull into the drive and park.
